Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine. INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES. JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known perfumer, of Chestant Street, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at almost every toiler, says:

Chestaut Street, Philadolphia, whose choice products are formed at almost every milet, says:

"I am happy to say of your Carnavre Pills, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledges. Many of my friends have realized marked senafits from them, and coincide with me in believing that they present attractionary virtues for driving out diseases and cuting the sick. They are not only effectual, but note and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chancellor WARDLAW writes from Ballimore, 15th April, 1854:

"Da. J. C. Arra.—Bar: I have taken your Pills with great benefit, for the listfessees, languor, loss of appetits, and Bilious landsche, which has of lare years arertaken me in the apring. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherty Pectucal many years in my family for coughs and colds with unfalling success. You make medicines which care; and I feel it a pleasant to commend you for the good you have done and are doing."

JOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Railroad Co., says:

"Pa. R. R. Offer, Philadelphia, Dec. 13, 1883.

"Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Pectoral and Catharric Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while my means will procure them." The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:

"Having used your Carmantic Pills in my precise, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of discordered functions of the liver, causing headache, indigestion, contivenes, and the great variety of discases that follow, they are a surer remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy the appropriate of combening secondant to the public, as superior to any other I have ever cound. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly sate—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have for many years known your Cherry Fretown as the best Cough aucdicine in the world; and these Pills are in an wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of discases."

"De. J. C. Arrs.—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted from my birth with scrudin in its woest form, and now, aftering, have been completely cured in a low weeks by your Pills. With what feelings of rejecting I write can only be imagined when you realize what I have surfered, and how long.

"Never until now have I been five from this insthumes disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, besides the unreadurable pain; a tothers it settled in the scalp of my head, and distrayed my hair, and has kept me partly held all my days; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept it for months a raw sore. "About nine weeks aga! Commenced taking your Cathartic Pills, and now an entirely five from the complaint. My eyes are well, my skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me feel already a new person.

"Hoping this statement may be the ineans of conveying information that shall do good to others, I am, with wenty sentiment of gratitude.
